Act and of the rules, regulations and routines of both Houses as well as many valuable informations for strangers visiting Ottawa and for the public in general.

PUBLISHED BY F. R. E. CAMPEAU, K. H. S.

OTTAWA.

OTTAWA:

PRINTED BY A. BUREAU, SPARKS STREET.

1885.

Entered according to Act of Parliament of Canada, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty five, by F. R. E. CAMPEAU, K. H. S., in the Office of the Minister of Agriculture, at Ottawa.

EXPLANATIONS.

Persons desirous of finding the Seat or Constituency of a member of either House, will look at the alphabetical list, for the name which is preceded by the number of the plate containing the portrait and followed by the name of the Division or Constituency which he represents as well as by the number of his Seat.

The plates are all numbered, from I to XXXVII, on the left hand side at the bottom; the name of the Divisions or Constituencies are put over the portraits, in alphabetical order, nine on each sheet or plate, and the seats on the diagrams are all numbered or lettered over the names, as follows:

Senate Chamber, 1 to 78.

House of Commons' Chamber, 1 to 200.

Including $14\frac{1}{2}$, $28\frac{1}{2}$, $87\frac{1}{2}$, $114\frac{1}{2}$, $128\frac{1}{2}$, $187\frac{1}{2}$ and

A B C D E F G H I J K O

To ascertain the Name of a member, look at the number corresponding to his seat on the diagram, where with his Name, his Portrait, Autograph, Division or Constituency can all be found.

REMARKS.

In consequence of the changes noted at page 116 the diagrams of both Houses and more especially that of the House of Commons, are forcibly inaccurate at present, although every seat occupied by the members at last session of Parliament was properly located at the time of publication.

It is utterly impossible to give a correct diagram of the House of Commons as to location of members, because the least change occasioned either by the death, the unseating or new election of a member will sometimes be the cause of over fifty changes. Members having the right to exchange seats as they please, the consequence is, that a diagram which is accurate in every respect at the opening of Parliament is often totally useless the next day.

PREFACE.

In presenting to the public this Vol. III of The Illustrated Guide to the Senate and House of Commons of Canada. I feel like having fulfilled the promise I made in the third paragraph of the preface in my Vol. II viz :

“ Give this book its Title, as above. Print the portraits on the page itself instead of pasting them. Print the plates on double sheets so as to allow them to be stitched in binding and thereby render it superior in quality.”

The Statistics, which no where else can be found so complete, and the political biographies, were compiled from the best official sources and from informations obtained through my own correspondence with members of both Houses, and in no case were they copied from any other publications of the kind.

As usual it was found impossible to procure all the necessary materials for this publication before last Session although I might venture to say that if all the Honorable Gentlemen appreciated my intentions in publishing this work, I might get it out for the second session of each Parliament. Unfortunately it is not so and I have to put up to something worse than indifference sometimes, on the part of some ones, whilst on the other hand, others are extremely courteous and obliging. To those who are well known and who constitute the mass ; I beg to return my sincere thanks.

I also thank all persons to whom I have applied for informations and who have in any way been instrumental in procuring me the necessary materials for my publication.

I thank my subscribers as well and I hope this volume will give them entire satisfaction.

EXTRACT OF RULES, ORDERS
— AND —
FORMS OF PROCEEDINGS — OF THE —
SENATE OF CANADA.

ABSENCE OF SENATORS.—Every Senator is bound to attend the Service of the House.

If his absence is prolonged to Two consecutive Sessions, his seat shall become vacant.

ADJOURNMENT OF THE SENATE.—If thirty minutes after the time of meeting, fifteen Senators, including the Speaker, are not present, the Speaker takes the Chair and adjourns the House til the next sitting day; the names of the Senators present being taken down by the Clerk. When it appears, during the sitting of the Senate, on notice being taken, that fifteen Senators, including the Speaker, are not present, the Senators who may be in the adjoining rooms being previously summoned, the Speaker adjourns the House as above.

If, at six o'clock, the business be not concluded, the Speaker leaves the Chair until half past seven.

When the Senate adjourns on Friday, unless otherwise ordered, it stands adjourned until the Monday following.

BLACK ROD.—See Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod.

BUSINESS OF THE SENATE.—At each daily sitting of the Senate, the Speaker shall call for, in the following order:—

- 1o. Presentation of Petitions;
- 2o. Reading of Petitions;
- 3o. Notices of Motions;
- 4o. Motions;
- 5o. Orders of the Day.

The Orders of the Day, which, at the adjournment, have not been proceeded with, are considered as postponed until the next sitting day, to take precedence of the Orders of that day, unless otherwise ordered.

CLERK OF THE SENATE.—The Clerk of the Senate, who has also the title of Clerk of Parliaments, has the same powers as those given to the Clerk of the House of Lords in England. His duties towards the Senate are identical with those of the Clerk of the house of Commons towards that body.

CLOSING.—See Prorogation.

DEBATES.—Every Senator desiring to speak is to rise in his place, uncovered, and address himself to the rest of the Senators and not refer to any other Senator by name.

No Senator may speak twice to a Question before the Senate, except in explanation or reply, where he has made a substantive motion.

Any Senator may require the Question under discussion to be read at any time during the Debate, but not so as to interrupt any Senator while speaking.

When a Question is under Debate, no motion is received, unless to amend it; to commit it; to postpone it to a certain day; for the previous Question; for reading the Orders of the day, or for the adjournment of the Senate.

GENTLEMAN USHER OF THE BLACK ROD.—This office was created by king Henry VII and the occupant ranks among the high dignitaries of State. The essence of the office is that this officer is the medium of communication between the Queen, and the people represented by the House of Commons, when the latter are summoned before Her. He is one of the principal officers of the Senate, and Master of Ceremonies there on all State occasions, is responsible for order in the House during the sittings of the Senate, where he has a seat on the Floor of the House. He is appointed by the Crown and is a Member of the Household.

MEETING OF THE SENATE.—The time for the ordinary meeting of the Senate during the Session, is at three o'clock in the afternoon, unless some other time shall have previously been ordered. The debates are open to the public on production of a card signed by the gentleman Usher of the Black Rod.

MEMBERS OF THE SENATE.—See Senators.

MINUTES.—A Copy of the Minutes of Proceedings, certified by the Clerk, is to be transmitted daily to the Governor General.

NEW PARLIAMENT.—On the first day of the meeting of a New Parliament, or of any subsequent Session, His Excellency having opened the Session by a gracious Speech to both Houses, and prayers being said, some Bill is read pro formâ; the Speech from the Throne is reported by the Speaker, and a committee of Privileges, consisting of all the Senators present during the Session, is appointed.

OPENING OF PARLIAMENT.—See New Parliament.

PROROGATION.—The Prorogation is the postponement of the Proceedings to another specified date.

QUORUM.—The Quorum of the Senate consists of fifteen members including the Speaker. If thirty minutes after the time of meeting, there is no Quorum, the Speaker takes the chair and adjourns the House till the next sitting day; the names of the Senators present being taken down by the Clerk.

RULES AND ORDERS OF THE DAY.—See Business of the Senate.

and exercised by the Commons House of Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The Senate has such a Control over the House of Commons that no Bill originated in this branch of the Legislature, can be presented to the Governor General for his approval, unless it has passed in the Senate. It is the same with regard to the Estimates, which cannot be authorized unless previously adopted by the Senate, which cannot however amend any part of.

(3.) He shall be legally or equitably seised as a Freehold for his own Use and Benefit, of Lands or Tenements held in free and common Socceage, or seized or possessed for his own Use and Benefit, of Lands or Tenements held in Franc-alieu or in Roture, within the Province for which he is appointed, of the value of Four thousand Dollars, over and above all Rents, Dues, Debts, Charges, Mortgages, and Incumbrances due or payable out of or charged on or affecting the same:

A Senator shall not be capable of being elected or of sitting or voting as a Member of the House of Commons.

A Senator shall, subject to the Provisions of the B. N. A. Act, hold his place in the Senate for life.

SERGEANT-AT-ARMS.—The Powers and Duties of the Sergeant-at-Arms of the Senate are similar to those of the Sergeant-at-Arms of the House of Commons with regard to this Branch of Parliament.

SPEAKER OF THE SENATE.—The Governor General may from Time to Time, by Instrument under the Great Seal of Canada, appoint a Senator to be Speaker of the Senate, and may remove him and appoint another in his Stead. Contrary to the Rules of the House of Commons, the Speaker of the Senate shall in all Cases have a Vote, and when the Voices are equal, the Decision shall be deemed to be in the Negative.

USHER OF THE BLACK ROD.—See Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod.

CABINET.—The Cabinet is composed of a certain number of responsible Ministers with or without a Portfolio conducting the affairs of the Dominion of Canada. Each Province is supposed to have in the Cabinet, a number of representatives in proportion to its population. The head of the Cabinet also called the Premier, as the choice of his Colleagues who together with him assume the titles of: "President of Privy Council;" "Minister of Finance and Receiver General;" "Minister of Justice and Attorney General;" "Minister of Public Works;" "Minister of Agriculture and Statistics;" "Minister of Customs;" "Minister of the Interior;" "Minister of Militia and Defence;" "Minister of Marine and Fisheries;" "Post Master General;" "Minister of Inland Revenue;" "Secretary of State;" and "Minister of Railways and Canals;"

He is responsible for the safe keeping of all the papers and Records of The House, and has the direction and control over all the Officers and Clerks in the Offices. He places on the Speaker's table every morning, previous to the Meeting of The House, the Order of the Proceedings for the day. He keeps a Record of the House's votes, proceedings and resolutions, and it is his duty to see that they are properly printed and distributed to Members. He has to read aloud all such documents as the House may order to be read. He has Assistants whose duty is to help the Clerk of the House during the Session, and to complete and finish with him the work remaining at the close of the Session.

COMMONS.—See House of Commons.

DEBATES.—No Member may speak twice to a Question, except in explanation of a material part of his speech in which he may have been misconceived. When a Member is speaking no Member shall interrupt him except to Order. When Members have been called in, preparatory to a Division, no further debate is to be permitted. All persons admitted to hear the Debates have to keep silent, and gentlemen, with their hats off; and any one disturbing the House can be placed in the custody of the Sergeant at Arms.

DISSOLUTION.—The Dissolution of the House is the breaking up of the Proceedings previous to new elections. The duration of a Parliament being of Five years, the House is supposed to be dissolved every Five years only, unless it is the pleasure of the Governor General to dissolve it sooner to make a new appeal to the electors for the interest of the public in general.

ELECTIONS.—The Elections for Representatives to the House of Commons take place after each dissolution of the Parliament and in this case they are called General elections. In other instances when to fill vacancies, they take place as soon as the writs are issued and in each case, the votation is by secret ballot and seven days after the nomination of candidates.

To be eligible for the House of Commons a person must not be a member of either the Senate or any of the Provincial Legislatures and must be a British born or naturalized subject of Her Majesty, having attained the full age of 21 years.

16	“ “ New Brunswick.
6	“ “ British Columbia.
6	“ “ Prince Edward Island.
4	“ “ Manitoba.

However the Number of Members of the House of Commons may be from time to time increased by the Parliament of Canada, provided the proportionate Representation of the Provinces prescribed by the Act is not thereby disturbed.

The House has to meet at least once a year for the despatch of business. The time chosen for that purpose is generally in January or February and the Session lasts about two months. On its first assembling after a General Election, the House of Commons proceeds with all practical speed to elect one of its Members to be Speaker. When all business is transacted and the Estimates voted, the House then is closed.

The hour of meeting of the House of Commons is 3 o'clock p. m. and 7½ o'clock p. m. and the debates are open to the public. However a ticket of admission signed by the Sergeant at Arms is necessary to be admitted to hear them.

JOURNAL.—A Journal has to be kept by the Clerk of the House, a copy of which is delivered daily to his Excellency the Governor General. The Clerk of the House enters in this journal: the time of Adjournment and the names of the Members present when the House adjourns for want of a Quorum; the reason stated by the Speaker when he is called upon to give a Casting Voice, and also the Yeas and Nays upon a Division; provided a demand to that effect is made by 5 Members.

LIBRARY.—No person shall be entitled to resort to the library during a Session of Parliament, except the Governor General, the Members of the Privy Council and of the two Houses of Parliament, the Officers of both Houses, and such other persons as may receive a written order of admission from the Speaker of either House. Members may personally introduce Strangers to the Library during the day time but not after the hour of seven o'clock p. m.

MACE.—The Mace is the sign of the Legislative Authority which rests in the House. The Sergeant at Arms, who is responsible for its safe-keeping, places it on the table at the opening of each Session. It remains on the table all the time of the proceedings of the House as a body; but it is taken off when the House is in Committee and at the close of each Meeting.

MEETING.—See House of Commons.

MEMBERS.—The Members of the House of Commons are the respective representatives of the Constituencies of the various Provinces of the Dominion. They are elected by the people by Ballot, for a period of five years.

PRIVATE BILL.—See Bills (private.)

PRIVILEGE.—Whenever any matter of Privilege arises, it is immediately taken into consideration.

PRIVY-COUNCIL.—The Privy Council is composed of all the past and present Ministers of the Crown since Confederation but those only who form the Administration take part in its deliberations. It is actually composed of Fifty Nine Members; Fourteen of whom form the Cabinet (one to be sworn in to fill vacant seat). One of them has no Portfolio.

PROROGATION.—The Prorogation of Parliament is the adjournment from one Session to another. It is never prorogued for a Period longer than Forty Days at a time. The time during which Parliament is prorogued, is called the Recess.

QUESTIONS PUT BY MEMBERS.—Questions may be put to Ministers of the Crown relating to public affairs; and to other members, relating to any Bill, Motion or other public matter connected with the Business of the House, in which such Members may be concerned; but two days Notice must be given for leave for putting a Question.

QUORUM.—The Quorum of the House of Commons is of 20 members. When there is not a Quorum the Speaker can take the chair and then adjourn, the names of the Members then present are inserted in the Journal.

RECESS.—See Prorogation.

SERGEANT-AT-ARMS.—The Sergeant-at-Arms appointed by the Crown, is responsible for the safe-keeping of the Mace, and for the conduct of the Messengers and inferior Servants of the House. It is he who regulates the admission of Strangers to the House through Members, by Tickets for the Galleries.

SESSION.—The Session is the term during which the House is assembled until its prorogation. A Session may be postponed from one date to another without being closed, but when all necessary business is completed, it is generally prorogued, or closed until the next year.

SPEAKER.—The Speaker, chosen by the Members of the House at the opening Session of Parliament after General Elections, is the presiding Officer of the House of Commons. He preserves order and decorum and decides Questions of Order. He takes no part in any Debate before the House, except when in Committee; but in case of an inequality of Votes, he gives a Casting Voice.

MISCELLANEOUS INFORMATION.

PLACES OF INTEREST IN AND AROUND OTTAWA.

THE GOVERNMENT BUILDINGS

The Parliament Buildings stand on a high plateau of some 30 acres in area. The buildings form three sides of a quadrangular figure, and are widely detached. The Parliament or main building facing Wellington street; and the Departmental Buildings facing inwards to the square and forming the other two sides of the figure. The splendour of these Buildings, their fine commanding site, together with the beauty of the surrounding scenery, place them in a very enviable position; compared with all other structures used for similar purposes on this continent, and some say, even in Europe; and must ever make them objects of interest to the tourist and the stranger.

The style of the Buildings is the Gothic of the 12th and 13th Centuries, with modification to suit the climate of Canada. The ornamental work and the dressing round the windows are of Ohio sandstone. The plain surface is faced with a cream-colored sandstone of the Potsdam formation, obtained from Nepean, a few miles from Ottawa. The spandrils of the arches, and the spaces between window-arches and the sills of the upper windows, are filled up with a quaint description of stone-work, composed of stones of irregular size, shape and colour, very neatly set together. These with the Potsdam red sandstone employed in forming the arches over the windows, afford a pleasant variety of colour and effect, and contrast with the general masses of light coloured sandstone, of which the body of the work is composed.

This Building, as you approach from Wellington street, presents a very imposing appearance. The central of the seven towers, which is very rich in design, projects its width from the front of the Building, and is about 180 feet high. The body of the building in front is forty feet high, above which rises the slanting roofs of slate, surmounted by lines of ornamental iron cresting. The building is 472 feet long ; and the depth from the front of the main tower to the rear of the library is 570 feet, covering an area of 82,886 superficial feet. It stands at a distance of 600 feet from Wellington street, so that the quadrangle formed on three sides by the Buildings and on the fourth by the street, is 700 feet from east to west, and 600 feet from north to south ; thus affording a very spacious square. The ground upon which the buildings stand varies somewhat in elevation, that forming the site of the Parliament Building being the highest. The basement floor of the buildings is assumed to be 160 feet above the ordinary summer level of the river, while that of the Eastern and Western blocks is 135 and 142 feet respectively. The increased elevation, however, improves very much the general effect of the buildings.

The main entrance is through the principal tower, the spacious arches of which admit of a carriage way under them. The piers which support the tower are ornamented with pillars of polished Arnprior marble. Passing through it we enter a large hall, paved with tiles, and also surrounded with marble pillars. In this large lobby are placed an immense oil painting representing the meeting of all the Canada's Statesmen who presided over the establishment of the Confederation and on the right hand side wall, a life size oil portrait of one of the popular predecessors of the present Governor General " Lord Dufferin, former Governor General of Canada."

THE SENATE CHAMBER.

On the right of the Main entrance is the Senate Chamber. The Room measures 82 by 45 feet, the ceiling being over 50 feet high, and formed of fine open work. The skylights above this intermediate ceiling, with the stained glass windows at the sides throw a plentiful soft light over the whole place. The room is surrounded by large piers of a light greyish marble from Portage du Fort, surmounted just above the galleries by clusters of small pillars of the dark Arnprior marble ; the arches supported by these pillars being again of the light coloured marble. The galleries can accommodate about 1,000 persons.

Outside and around the Senate Chamber are placed the oil portraits of the following Statesmen of Canada, viz :

THE LIBRARY OF PARLIAMENT.

At the time of the Union of Upper and Lower Canada, in 1841, the libraries of each Province were thrown into one library and formed about 6000 volumes. In 1849, it had grown up, by purchase and gifts, to 25,000 volumes, all of which, save about 200 volumes, were destroyed by fire in Montreal, on the 25th of April. It was reconstituted, and on the first of February, 1854, was for the second time, destroyed by fire, in Quebec. At that date the library contained 17,000 volumes, 8000 of which were saved from destruction, by the students of the Quebec Seminary. At the time of the removal of the seat of Government from Quebec to Ottawa, the library numbered about 55,000 volumes.

The library building, then in course of construction, not being ready to receive the books, the picture gallery apartments, were temporarily fitted up for its use and it remained thus until 1876, when it was finally removed to the present library building. This building is of circular form and has a diameter of 120 feet, its height from the floor to the top of the inside of the cupola is 160 feet. The frame work of the two galleries around the library is of cast iron, covered with artistic wood work. The flooring of the galleries is made of glass one inch thick. There are 393 gas jets in the Library and surrounding rooms. The Library contains about 110,000 volumes. In the centre is a white marble statue of Her Most Gracious Majesty, Queen Victoria. It stands about 15 feet high with pedestal and was made by Marshall Wood. On small pedestals around the room and from left to right of entrance door are placed the following busts.

1. Sir Wm. Logan, late Geologist of Canada, (marble) by Marshall Wood.
2. The Marquis of Lorne, late Governor General of Canada, (plaster) by Forbes.
3. H. R. H. The Princess of Wales (marble) by Marshall Wood.
4. H. R. H. The Prince of Wales, (marble) by Marshall Wood.
5. Sir E. P. Taché, late Premier of the Dominion of Canada, (marble) by Meusnier.
6. Hon. John Sanfield Macdonell, (marble) by Marshall Wood.

There are 6 rooms between the interior and exterior walls, all filled up with books. The central part of the old library has been fitted up as a Reading Room, but the gallery has been kept for the use of the library.

The library staff is composed of one librarian, one assistant, five clerks and four messengers.

The library is opened every day, except sundays and legal holidays from 9 A. M. to 4 P. M. during recess of Parliament and during session, every day, from 9 A. M. until the House adjourns, generally about midnight.

The annual grant for the purchase of books is $10,000.

The works composing the library, belongs chiefly to Law, Parliamentary papers and records of all countries, Science and Art. Classics although well represented are not so complete as the Law department. But special attention is paid to works on America and more particularly to those on Canada.

THE VICTORIA TOWER.

(See Picture, Plate XIII.)

On the top of this Tower the Tourist can see the surrounding country at a great distance and he has a splendid birds-eye view of the City; the height of the tower being very near 300 feet above the level of the Ottawa River. From the ground, there are 287 steps to the top which is crowned with an iron railing 7 feet high, so as to prevent accidents. In this tower is placed the beautiful clock for which an estimate of $7,000 was voted by Parliament in 1875.

This clock was manufactured by M. F. Dent & Co., 33 Cockspur street, London, England and the mechanism was put up by Geo. Sutherland of Ottawa. It is an eight day clock with Dennissons' three leg gravity escapement and two seconds compensated pendulum, The length of pendulum is 14 feet and its weight is 500lbs. It has a remontoir train to move hands every half minute. It is driven by weights of 500lbs. for time portion and 700lbs. for striking power. It strikes every hour with a 50lbs. weight on a bell of one ton weight situated about 60 feet below the mechanism. This bell was manufactured by Meneely and Kimbury, Troy, New York, U. S. 1875. The dials, four in number are made of black slate $1\frac{1}{2}$ thick with gilt figures and are 8 feet in diameter.

THE GOVERNMENT PATENT OFFICE.

In the Department of Agriculture, the Hon. J. H. Pope very wisely made important changes in the internal working of the Patent Office, deviding it into four divisions, over each of which he placed an executive officer.

1st Division, Mr. Cambie as Acting Deputy Commissioner. 2nd division Mr. Casgrain in charge of the Records. 3rd division Mr. Dionne in charge of Correspondance, and 4th division Mr. McCabe Chief Examiner of Patents. This latter division is the most interesting to strangers inasmuch as it comprises the collection of over 25,000 miniature models of all inventions patented in Canada since 1824, some of which are regular gems of workmanship. They are assorted in rich glass cases of all dimensions appropriated for the space allotted them in the upper story of the Western Block of Government Buildings in the wing facing the square.

THE LOVERS WALK

(See Picture, Plate XXXVII.)

A charming promenade hidden on the side of the rock on which the Parliament buildings stand. This road which is over a quarter of a mile in length is wide and kept in good order, seats are placed here and there for the convenience of persons who want to enjoy a solitary rest. From that place the tourist has a splendid view of the Ottawa river, in all its grandeur including the chaudière Falls in the distance.

THE RIDEAU CANAL LOCKS.

Eight in number, are situated at the extremity of the Rideau Canal. They are 134 feet long and 33 feet wide each. Their construction was begun in the spring 1827 by Colonel By, who gave his name to this city formerly called Bytown. On the 16th August of the same year, the corner stone was laid by the celebrated traveller Franklin who happened to be visiting this part of the country, and the whole work was terminated in the year 1831. Their first cost was £803,774.5.5 Sterling. Their object is to establish a communication for navigation purpose between the Ottawa river and the Rideau Canal which takes its source at Kingston, on Lake Ontario.

FISHERY MUSEUM.

One of the most attractive places in the city, is the Fishery Museum, on the corner of Queen and O'Connor Sts. This Museum contains the exhibits that were in London at the Fishery Exhibition of 1883. The collection of the monsters of the deep that greet the eye of the visitor on every side will likely in time become a part of the National Museum on Sussex St., but want of accommodation in the Geological Museum buildings for the time has compelled the Minister of Marine and Fisheries, to rent the Orange Hall in the locality mentioned. The number of visitors at this Museum during the past year has been more than double that of any existing Museum on exhibition in the city. Besides the Exhibits that in London took such high Awards there is constantly on Exhibition a miniature Fish Hatchery in full operation. From this Hatchery hundreds of thousands of Fry have been sent to the Lakes and Streams in the immediate vicinity of Ottawa during the last year. Although not considered as one of the regular Fish Hatcheries of the country this miniature establishment has given much information, and been of great interest to the many visitors that the city has every year. For this really attractive exhibit we are largely indebted to the Hon. A. W. McLelan, the Minister of Marine and Fisheries, who was in London while the specimens were on exhibition there, and who has allowed them to be mounted in the city for the inspection of all visitors. An obliging caretaker, Mr. Philip Veale, is always on hand to explain to visitors the nature of the specimens presented before them. Mr. McLelan during the London exhibition was greatly assisted by those associated with him in the work. Mr. S. Wilmot, Dr. Honeyman, L. Z. Joncas, and the Secretary of the Commission, Mr. W. D. Dimock who did all in their power to make the Fisheries Exhibition, as far as Canada was concerned, a success, and what they have returned from that great Exhibition, and now exhibit, is really worth seeing. Since the arrival of the Specimens here the Deputy Minister of Fisheries, Major Tilton, has done all in his power to make the exhibit not only attractive, but a real source of information.

THE FIRE ALARM TELEGRAPH.

Of which the principal Office is situated at the City Hall, Elgin St. was erected in 1874 and serves as in other cities to transmit from one part of the city to another by means of electricity, the alarm in cases of fires, giving the locality of the conflagration by numbers corresponding with those of the signal boxes placed in various parts of the city, a list of which is published on page 132.

MAJORS HILL PARK.

Extending from Sussex Street East to St. Patrick Street West on the Cliff this side of the Rideau Canal opposite the Parliament Buildings. Although not quite completed, still it presents a nice aspect with its fine walks, flower beds, rustic kiosks, seats, etc., and especially its beautiful view of the river and the Chaudière Falls.

GEOLOGICAL MUSEUM AND LIBRARY.

The Geological and Natural History Museum and Headquarters of the Survey were, in accordance with an Act of the Dominion Parliament, 40 Vic., cap. 9, sec. 7, removed from Montreal to Ottawa, and are now established in a three-story stone building on the corner of Sussex and George Streets.

The ground floor contains offices, library and laboratory. On the first floor there are two rooms devoted to museum purposes—the larger one, 103 feet long by 24 feet wide, contains upwards of 4,000 geological and mineralogical specimens, arranged in cases to illustrate the economic and scientific geology of the Dominion. The specimens are labeled, showing the localities from which they were obtained, and the formations to which they belong. The economic collection is arranged under the following heads:—

- I. Metals and their Ores.
- II. Fossil Fuel.
- III. Minerals applicable to certain Chemical Manufactures, and their Products (see also under IV).
- IV. Mineral Manures (see also under III).
- V. Mineral Pigments and Detergents.
- VI. Salt, Brines and Mineral Waters.
- VII. Materials applicable to Common and Decorative Construction.
- VIII. Refractory Materials, Pottery Clays and Pottery.
- IX. Materials for Grinding and Polishing.
- X. Minerals applicable to the Fine Arts and to Jewelry.

In the smaller room on the same floor (22 ft. 6 in. by 17 ft. 8 in.) there is a smaller collection of foreign minerals which, as opportunities occur, will be augmented; also, a collection of specimens of native woods.

The rooms on the second floor are of the same dimensions as those on the first floor. The larger one contains upwards of 11,000 specimens of Canadian fossils, representing over 3,000 species; also, about 6,000 species of shells comprising upwards of 14,000 specimens, most of which are exotic.

In the smaller room on this floor there is a small ethnological collection, chiefly from the Indians of the Pacific Coast. A larger collection of Indian relics, mainly from Ontario, was recently acquired. It contains upwards of 3,500 specimens, but owing to want of available space they cannot, at present, be exhibited.

The Museum possesses an Herbarium containing upwards of 7,000 specimens of the North American flora, including a nearly complete series of plants indigenous to Canada.

It contains also the commencement of a collection of native mammals and birds which however, includes a few very rare Arctic and North Western species. There are, at present, 24 species of mammals and about 70 species of birds, represented by 140 specimens.

In the Library there are upwards of 5,500 volumes, comprising standard works of reference on geology, mineralogy, metallurgy, chemistry and natural history. Persons desiring to consult any volume can do so, by applying to the Librarian.

The Museum is open to visitors from 10 a. m. to 4 p. m. Admission free.

THE RIDEAU FALLS.

(See Picture, Plate XII.)

Situated at the northern terminus of the street railway line on Sussex street and formed by the Rideau River, which precipitates itself into the Ottawa from a height of about 50 feet, dividing its waters as it goes down forming two sheets of water having the appearance of a pair of large curtains. (Rideau being the french of curtain) (these falls have to be seen in the spring, for in any other season the waters are not high enough to give a correct idea of them). Persons can go down under the Falls where shower baths are to be had.

THE WATER WORKS.

Were constructed in 1874. Their hydraulic powers are situated at about half a mile from the Parliament Buildings, at the extreme end of Wellington street. The water which they supply in immense quantity to the city comes from above the Chaudière Falls and is considered the purest in Canada.

THE SLIDES.

Were constructed in 1832 by Mr. Geo. Buchanan, to avoid the Chaudière Falls and thereby facilitate the driving of the lumber going down towards the markets of Montreal and Quebec. They are 26 feet wide and 874 feet in length, and their slope is rendered nearly insensible by stops, placed at distances, from 66 feet to 380 feet between each. In summer the amateurs of sensation, find great pleasure in going down these slides on the rafts. This little trip although very agreeable, might prove dangerous if not made with prudence.

THE CHAUDIERE FALLS.

So called, by the first travellers in this country, on account of its basin resembling a huge-kettle (Chaudière being the french of this word). It is situated at the western extremity of the City at a distance of about two miles from the Parliament Buildings, at the terminus of the street railway line. Its height is only 60 feet but its immense volume of water nearly equals that of the Niagara Falls, and whirls as in a vast funnel, the width of the Ottawa river, immediately over, being about 500 yards whilst below, it measures only about 50 yards.

THE UNION SUSPENSION BRIDGE.

Was erected a little below the Chaudière Fall in 1843-44, rebuilt in 1861 and renovated in 1881. Its length between each pillar is $243\frac{1}{2}$ feet and its width is 24 feet viz: 16 feet of road-way and 4 feet of side-walk on each side. It is supported on 4 stone pillars, two at each end, 10 feet square tapering up to five feet at the summit which is covered by a cast iron cap and their height from the level of the road-way to the top is 21 feet. The main or suspension cables supporting the iron and wood structure are four in number on each side, their diameter is 3 in. and they are composed of 300 small wires $\frac{7}{8}$ in. each. 55 small suspenders $\frac{3}{4}$ in. each and at intervals of 4 feet between each connect the large wire cables to the wood and iron structure. The height of the bridge is 23 feet from the level of the water. An interesting peculiarity is that a person standing halfway on this bridge has a foot in each of the Provinces of Ontario and Quebec, the Ottawa river being the division line between the two.

THE OTTAWA MINERAL SPRINGS.

These springs three in number are situated on the farm of Mr. Thomas Borthwick in the Township of Gloucester, six miles east of Ottawa. They are the popular resort of those who like to enjoy the pleasure of a drive on the good macadamised road leading to that place, combined with that of seeing these interesting springs which can be favorably compared to any of the kind in this district or elsewhere.

As to the propriety of this "Nature's Medicine," it is unsurpassed and I cannot do better than to quote the following remarks from Doctor J. Baker Edwards, Ph. D., D. C. L. F. C. S. Professor of Chemistry and Public Analyst Montreal, who made an analysis of the water ;

"I find this water to be of an excellent saline character ; of the second class of native Mineral Waters ; free from carbonates and rich in Chlorides, Bromides and Iodides. It will therefore rank high as an alterative, aperient, and anti-scorbutic mineral remedy.

"The specific gravity is 1,008. It is not aerated, nor is it alkaline. It contains (in 1,000 parts of saline and earthy chlorides 11.9 grains, and of bromides and iodides 0.4 grains. It contains, like some of its congeners, a small portion of strontium and both bromide and iodide of magnesium. Of total solid saline matter, it contains per Imperial gallon of 70,000 grains, which I estimate to be combined as follows:—

Chlorides 833 grains per gallon, combined as

Chloride of Sodium.....	784.70
Chloride of Potassium	10.50
Chloride of Strontium	1.40
Chloride of Calcium.....	14.70
Chloride of Magnesium	21.70
Bromide and Iodide of Magnesium.....	2.80
Sulphate of Strontium	2.10
Sulphate of Calcium.....	15.40
Sulphate of Magnesium.....	19.60
Silica and Oxide of Iron, etc.....	4.90

ANAL.

Saline contents of one Imperial Gallon877.80

"The above result commends the Springs as a safe and valuable aperient and alterative, especially in Liver and Kidney derangements."

The water has been used by the leading families of Ottawa and surrounding country for the past 30 years and has been prescribed and recommended by all the Medical men of the City. It has been found a pleasant and very efficaceous beverage in all cases.

I understand that the water is delivered in town and outside the city by Mr. W. Borthwick, 124 Rideau Street, Ottawa, where all informations will be cheerfully given I am sure.

ROBERT'S SULPHUR SPRINGS.

Situated at a little distance from the Montreal Road about 5 miles from the city. The water from these springs contain a great quantity of sulphur which makes it a cure for various diseases. The proprietor Mr. S. Robert has built on the spot a commodious hotel for the confort and accomodation of the numerous persons who go there for the sake of taking hot or cold sulphur baths. Amateurs of curiosities can find on the banks of the little river running close-by all kinds of stones, some oval, some round like balls, and most of them containing fossils.

HULL IRON MINE.

This mine, owned by Mr. A. H. Baldwin, may be reached by a road of about two miles from the Gatineau river. Both the facilities for working the mine and getting out the products are good, as the mine is not worked by digging as is generally the case but is approached sideways, thereby saving considerable expense. Wagons or sledges convey the products to the wharf on the Gatineau, from where it is shipped to Cleveland by barges.

THE GROTTO OF WAKEFIELD.

An immense natural cavern in a mountain at a distance of twenty-one miles from Ottawa, in the Township of Wakefield. Mr. Pélissier, on whose property it is situated, declares himself not to have been able to ascertain the depth. The interior is divided into compartments of irregular form and shape, the ground is not always of the same level. As a marvel this grotto is well worth a visit, and the road is in pretty good order as far as that place. The best road to follow, is the one on the right side of Gatineau river, going up. Trout fishing 8 miles further.

EXPLANATIONS.

Exchange on Paris is calculated at Sterling rates, adding however $\frac{1}{2}\%$ for difference between Paris and London. Therefore if a draft on London at 60 days sight would be sold at $10\frac{1}{2}\%$ the same on Paris would cost 11% premium.

EXAMPLE.—Required the sterling amount of Frs. 216.05 according to the present table.

Ers. 200 00	=	£8 0 0
16 00	=	0 12 9 $\frac{60}{100}$ ths
0 05	=	0 0 0 $\frac{48}{100}$ ths

Frs. 216 05 £8 12 10 $\frac{18}{100}$

By means of the ordinary Sterling Exchange Tables the cost of Frs. 216,05 at 60 days sight may be easily ascertained or it may be calculated as follows, viz :

Reduce £8 12 10 into dollars.....	$34.57
Add $\frac{1}{9}$ of the amount	3.84

$38.41

Add 11% on \$38.41 (if exchange on London is at $10\frac{1}{2}\%$ premium).....	4.22
---	------

INLAND REVENUE.

GENERAL WAREHOUSING REGULATIONS.

1. All applications for the establishment of a warehouse for Excise puposes, must be made in writing, on such form as the Department may prescribe, by the party requiring it, and every such application must fully and minutely describe the premises with their exact locality.

2. On receipt of such an application the Collector of Inland Revenue will survey the premises, and if satisfied that they are suitable for the purpose, and that they afford the requisite protection to the Revenue, and on their being supplied with suitable locks, he will report the facts to the Inspector of the District whose authority will be required to use such warehouse as a bonding warehouse for Excise purposes.

3 The door of every such warehouse shall be provided with two locks, one of which will be supplied to the Collector by the Department upon requisition being made therefor, and the key of which shall be kept by the Collector, and the other provided by the owner of the goods and he to retain the key thereof; and should there be more doors than one, all other doors, and all other windows and other means of ingress, shall be fastened on the inside in a secure manner and to the satisfaction of the surveying officer.

4. When any warehouse has been surveyed and accepted as an Excise bonding warehouse, either in connection with a licenced manufactory or otherwise, it shall be designated by a letter of the alphabet.

5. Over the principal entrance to every wherehouse approved for Excise purposes, there shall be placed the following designation.—

EXCISE.

V. R.

BONDING WAREHOUSE.

With its designation letter, the whole being in legible characters, painted in oil collors and not less than three inches in height.

W

6. Every package entered for warehouse must (in addition to all other marks and numbers) be distinctly marked to the satisfaction of the Collector, with the number of the entry and the date when originally warehoused, except that in the case of cigars the Entry number may be omitted. In the case of spirits the above marks shall be written or stencilled on the package in oil paint. The date will be sufficiently indicated by the number of the month and the last two numerals of the year in which the entry was made:—Thus goods entered on the 20th January, 1883, may be dated 1-83, showing that the entry was made in the first month of the solar year, 1883, or if 20th November, 1883, dated 11-83. All goods in any warehouse, except in the case of cigars, must also be so stowed or arranged that casks, boxes or packages, contained or described in one entry are placed together in separate lots as provided by law, Cigars shall be stowed or arranged in warehouse, in lots according to the denomination of the packages. The packages must also be so stowed or arranged that ample space will be left so that each package and the marks and numbers thereon can be examined. Officers of Inland Revenue may refuse subsequent entries for warehouse when these regulations as to arranging and stowing packages are not complied with.

7. All entries are to be numbered consecutively, and as license bonds are now made to cover the duty on goods remaining in warehouse from time to time during the currency of that license, the taking of warehouse bonds with each warehousing is dispensed with.

8. No entry shall be passed for warehouse or ex-warehouse upon any authorized holiday, nor before the hour of nine o'clock in the morning, nor after four o'clock in the afternoon.

9. All entry papers, bonds, notices, and other documents herein required, shall be made out and signed by the owner of the goods to which they relate, or in his name by his duly authorized attorney, and all packages shall be marked and numbered as herein required by the owner or his agent.

10. Entry of goods for warehouse must in all cases be made on the forms sanctioned by the Department, and every such entry shall contain a full and complete specification of the goods so entered, stating :

- (a.) The number and description of packages.
- (b.) Marks and numbers.

(c) Contents of each in pounds, gallons or number; and in the case of spirits, methylated spirits and vinegar, the contents are also to be stated in gallons of the strength of proof.

(d) The duty due on the goods so entered for warehouse.

Every cask, barrel or package containing goods shall be whole and entire at the time it is warehoused.

11. Every warehouse entry shall be in duplicate.

ENTRY OF GOODS EX-WAREHOUSE FOR EXPORTATION.

12. Goods subject to duties of Excise shall only be exported in bond from a port where there is an officer of Customs, and only to British or foreign ports of entry where there are Collectors or other officers of the Government having similar functions, and when ex-warehoused for exportation may be such quantity as exporter or manufacturer respectively may require, within the discretion of the Collector, but nothing less than the contents of one whole package.

13. Goods can only be entered for exportation in bond ex-warehouse from a warehouse within the limits of the port at which they are actually laden on the ship, car or other vehicle in which they are handed over to the Customs by warrant for shipment.

14. All casks, boxes, bales or other packages of goods entered for exportation shall, before leaving the warehouse, be conspicuously branded by the person entering the same ex-warehouse, and under the personal supervision of the officer in charge, with the letters, E X P N, and any further information that may be required in any specific case or cases.

15. Entry of goods ex-warehouse for exportation must be made on the forms sanctioned by the Department, and must contain an exact specification of the goods intended for exportation. (Vide Section 10.) With every such entry, an export bond shall be taken in the prescribed form.

16. Export bonds shall be conditioned for the due delivery of the goods bonded at the place designated in the entry within a specified time, which time in any case shall not exceed the time usually necessary for the performance of the voyage or journey by the conveyance adopted (allowing a reasonable time for detention within the discretion of the Collector) and for returning the vouchers by the next mail; and in no case shall the period allowed for the cancellation of the export bond exceed six months, unless special authority has been granted by the Department.

17. If within the period named in said bond there be produced to the proper Collector or officer of Inland Revenue, the duly authenticated certificate of some principal officer of Customs or colonial revenue at the place to which the goods were exported or if such place be a foreign country, of any British or foreign Consul or Vice-Consul, resident there, stating that the goods were actually landed and left at some place (naming it) out of Canada, as provided by the said bond, such bond shall be cancelled.

18. The entry ex-warehouse for exportation shall in all cases be made in triplicate with the Collector of Inland Revenue, who shall also take the export bond, and the copy forwarded to the Department shall bear on its face the certificate of an officer of Inland Revenue, that he has examined the goods, such certificate being made in the form given in Schedule A to these Regulations.

19. Two copies of the entry together with a warrant to ship (H. 2) shall be sent to the Collector of Customs at the port where the goods are laden on the vessel, car or other vehicle in which they are to leave the Division, who, on receipt thereof, shall grant a warrant for the landing of the goods described in the entry on the railway or vessel mentioned therein.

20. So soon as the goods have been duly laden, the Collector of Customs shall certify the fact on the entry papers one copy whereof shall be filed at the Custom House, and the other returned to the Collector of Inland Revenue of the Division whence the goods were shipped.

21. The Collector of Customs of the port will in each case be charged with the responsibility of seeing them placed on board ship, the car or other vehicle in which they are to be exported, and must satisfy himself that they correspond with the description contained in the entry, and especially with reference to spirits, that they are of the strength specified.

ENTRY OF GOODS FOR REMOVAL EX-WAREHOUSE IN BOND.

22. Entries for goods for removal ex-warehouse are to be made in triplicate, with detailed specifications, as in export entries, two copies of which are to be forwarded to the Collector of the Inland Revenue Division to which the goods are consigned.

23. The least quantity of such goods that can be ex-warehoused for removal or transfer in bond shall be that quantity which can at the receiving point, be legally warehoused as prescribed by law.

24. Goods can only be entered for removal ex-warehouse to another licensed warehouse within the limits of a warehousing port of entry, or to an Excise bonding warehouse previously licensed or authorized in another Inland Revenue Division, or as provided by the next succeeding section, and when shipped to the order of the Collector of Inland Revenue the bond of the manufacturer or merchant for the removal of goods to warehouses in other Inland Revenue Divisions upon the prescribed form will now be used in lieu of those required when not so shipped, upon the following conditions, viz. ;—

(a.) Goods so removed to be consigned to the order of the Collector of the Inland Revenue Division to which they are to be removed, and in cases in which permits are by law required, for the removal of such goods, the permits shall in all cases state that the goods to which they refer are to be so consigned.

(b.) The receipt given by the Agent of the Railway Company (or other public carrier), usually known as the “ Bill of Lading,” is to be made out correspondingly, and is to be placed in the hands of the Collector of the Inland Revenue Division whence the goods are to be shipped, and by him transmitted to the Collector of the Division to which they are to be removed.

(c.) The Collector upon being advised of their arrival, shall immediately notify the party for whom intended, and after they have been examined by the proper officer and found to be in accordance with the removal papers, and after the duties to which such goods are liable have been paid or the warehouse entry passed therefor, the Collector of Inland Revenue will write across the face of the bill of lading.

“ Deliver to C. D. upon payment of freight and charges.

“ E—— F——,

“ Collector, I. R.

(d) Collectors are particularly notified that all orders for the delivery of goods must be made expressly and in writing, "subject to the payment of freight and charges," or they may, by the omission to specify such conditions, render themselves personally liable to the Company for such payment in the event of default.

(e.) The requisition for a permit to remove spirits under § (a.) shall, in every such case, state that the goods are to be "delivered into the possession of the Collector of the Inland Revenue Division" to which they are to be removed; and across the face of such requisition is to be written the name of the party to whom (subject to the order of Collector) the consignor desires the goods to be delivered.

25. Persons not having licensed Bonding Warehouses, and being desirous of receiving Excise Goods in bond, and of paying the duty thereon immediately upon arrival may do so, provided such goods are shipped to the place where the head office of an Inland Revenue Division is situated and are consigned to the order of the Collector of the Division. The goods must be constructively warehoused and ex-warehoused for duty at such place immediately upon arrival, and if tobacco or cigars the stamping &c., performed there.

26. When goods removed in bond are conveyed from the place of shipment by a foreign steamer, vessel or railway—for example by Ward's Line of Steamers from Windsor to Prince Arthur's Landing, thence by Canadian Pacific Railway to Winnipeg, or when goods so removed are not consigned to the order of the Collector of Inland Revenue, a removal bond must be given, with sureties acceptable to the Collector of Inland Revenue.

27. Collectors of Inland Revenue will, on the arrival of the goods, examine them and ascertain whether they correspond with the removal entry, and as soon as the goods are placed in warehouse, or dealt with as provided in section 25, certify to the fact on the removal entry, and return it to the Collector of the Inland Revenue Division from which the goods were shipped.

28. Removal bonds can only be cancelled upon the receipt of the removal entry, bearing the certificate of the Collector, Deputy-Collector, or the Acting Collector of the Division to which the goods were consigned, that they have been received and re-warehoused.

ENTRY OF GOODS EX-WAREHOUSE FOR CONSUMPTION.

29. Entry of goods ex-warehouse for consumption, will be made in duplicate on the prescribed forms; and every such entry must contain a full specification of the goods, as in an export or removal entry.

30. On receipt of the duty accruing on the goods so entered, the Collector of Inland Revenue will sign the warrant, for the delivery of the goods, and the locker in charge of the warehouse must identify every package with the description contained in the warrant, before delivering it.

MALT.

31. Malt warehoused under the "Inland Revenue Act, 1883," may be removed in bond from one Inland Revenue Division to another, or from one warehouse to another, and may be exported in bond without payment of duty. But every such removal or export shall be under the same restriction and conditions as to entry and bonds, as are in force in respect of other goods liable to duties of Excise, except that bags or other packages containing malt, are not required to be marked or numbered.

TOBACCO AND CIGARS.

32. In addition to the regulations herein established, the warehousing and ex-warehousing of tobacco and cigars, shall be further governed by the terms of the "Regulations in respect of Tobacco and Cigars," established under authority of the Act 46 Vic., Chap. 15.

METHYLATED SPIRITS.

33. All methylated spirits removed from warehouse (or manufactory), whether duty paid or otherwise, shall be subject to the same general provisions as to permits as other spirits.

POST OFFICE SAVINGS BANK, CANADA.

1. Four hundred Post Office Savings Banks in Canada are open daily for the receipt and repayment of deposits, during the ordinary hours of Post Office business.

2. The direct security of the Dominion is given by the Statute for all deposits made.

3 Any person may have a deposit account, and may deposit yearly any amount of dollars, from $1 up to $300, or more with the permission of the Postmaster General.

4. Deposits may be made by married women, and deposits so made, or made by women who shall afterwards marry, will be repaid to any such women.

5. As respects children under 10 years of age money may be deposited—

FIRSTLY—By a parent and friend as Trustee for the child, in which case the deposits can be withdrawn by the Trustee until the child shall attain the age of ten years, after which time repayment will be made only on the joint receipts of both Trustee and child.

SECONDLY—In the child's own name—and, if so deposited repayment will not be made until the child shall attain the age of ten years.

6. A depositor in any of the Savings Bank Post Offices may continue the deposits in any other of such offices, without notice or change of pass-book, and can withdraw money at the Savings Bank Office which is most convenient to him. For instance, if he makes his first deposit in the Savings Bank at Cobourg, he may make further deposits at, or withdraw his money through the Post Office Bank at Collingwood or Quebec, Sarnia, Brockville, or any place which may be convenient to him, whether he continue to reside at Cobourg or remove to some other place.

7. Each depositor is supplied with a pass book, which is to be produced to the Postmaster every time the depositor pays in or withdraws money, and the sum paid in or withdrawn are entered therein by the Postmaster receiving or paying the same.

8. Each depositor's account is kept in the Postmaster General's Office in Ottawa, and in addition to the Postmaster's receipt in the pass-book, a direct acknowledgement from the Postmaster General for each sum paid in is sent to the depositor. If the acknowledgement does not reach the depositor within ten days of the date of his deposit, he must apply immediately to the Postmaster General by letter, being careful to give the address, and, if necessary, write again, because the Postmaster's receipt or entry in the pass-book is not sufficient without the further receipt for the money from Ottawa.

9. Every depositor must send his book once a year, viz: on the anniversary of his first deposit, for comparison with the Books of the Department, and for insertion of interest. The Book will be returned to him by first mail. At no other time should the depositor suffer his book to be out of his possession.

10. When a depositor wishes to withdraw money, he can do so by applying to the Postmaster General, who will send him by return mail a cheque for the amount payable at whatever Savings Bank Post Office the depositor may have named in his application.

11. Interest at the rate of 4 per cent per annum is allowed on deposits, and the interest is added to the principal on the 30th June in each year.

12. Postmasters are forbidden by law to disclose the name of any depositor, or the amount of any sum deposited or withdrawn.

13. No charge is made to depositors on paying in or drawing out money, nor for pass-books, nor for postage or communications with the Postmaster General in relation to their deposits.

14. The Postmaster General is always ready to receive and attend to all applications, complaints, or other communications addressed to him by depositors or others, relative to Post Office Savings Bank business.

15. A full statement of the Regulations of the Post Office Savings Bank may be seen in the Official "Postal Guide," and at any Post Office in the Dominion.

METROPOLITAN SOCIETY

FOR THE

PREVENTION OF CRUELTY TO ANIMALS.

Supported by voluntary contribution.

This Society endeavors to prevent cruelty by means of Education, and by the enforcement of the statutes against offenders. Its educational proceedings commence in the school and nursery, and extend to the platform and pulpit, and to literature circulated throughout the City of Ottawa, in schools, railway trains, steamboats, workshops, stables, and the public streets. Its prosecutions are conducted in all parts of the County of Carleton. Its activity and success have induced the public to look to this Society alone as the agent for the suppression of cruelty throughout the city and county.

The Committee earnestly appeal for pecuniary support, without which they will be compelled to curtail their operations

Post Office Orders, Cheques, etc., may be forwarded to
